

From Cradle to Grave

Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the friends, even though they are strangers to you;...we ought to support such people so that we may become co-workers with the truth. 3 John 5, 8

Dedicated to Providing Services for Missionaries & Their Families

Spring 2010

We have been discussing what Missionary Member Care involves and why it is needed in our past couple of newsletters. In this edition we take a look at the fourth of six stages of a missionary's career.

Stage Four: First Furlough/Home Assignment

Many missionaries report that transitioning back to their sending country is more challenging and difficult than the entry into and the first transition to their country of service. Why?

- Many challenges in the first transition are expected and viewed as normal
- New cultural and personal values have now been developed
- Often deeper and more comprehensive views of the realities of the world, its suffering, its opportunities and its challenges have been acquired
- A level of immersion into a new country and culture has taken root
- The home country, culture and people have changed since they left it and so has the missionary

The fifth stage will be discussed in the fall newsletter.

The New Office Dedication

Celebrating MRC's move into the new wing in the Crossover building.

Dear MRC,

May the Lord continue to bless your ministry to missionaries who are on home assignment. Our family has been greatly encouraged and strengthened by each of you these past two years. MRC has been used by the Lord to bring healing, refreshment, mentoring to many.

May the Lord Jesus continue His ministry through each of you as you bear others burdens.

Love, PH
